

Sheila Schwaighofer is a Swiss Attorney-at-Law in the Dispute Resolution Team of Pitkowitz & Partners. She is also admitted to practice in Austria as a European Lawyer.

Sheila has over seven years of experience in the legal field. Her primary focus is on Dispute Resolution including international litigation and arbitration proceedings. She has been involved as counsel and as tribunal secretary in complex, multimillion arbitration under various institutions.

Sheila studied at the University of Geneva and holds a master's degree in law (MLaw) and a bachelor's degree in international relations. Before successfully passing the Swiss bar in 2016, Sheila worked for reputable law firms and international organizations in Geneva and has gained significant experience in dealing with different jurisdictions at reputable law firms in Vienna.

Sheila is listed as arbitrator at the Vienna International Arbitration Centre (VIAC). She is also a member of Young Austrian Arbitration Practitioners (YAAP), Young International Council for Commercial Arbitration (Young ICCA), Swiss Arbitration Association (ASA) below 40, Racial Equality for Arbitration Lawyers (REAL), International Association of Young Lawyers (AIJA) and Africa in the Moot. She has also taken part in conferences as panelist and moderator and regularly acts as an arbitrator in the Willem C. Vis Moot.