

Caroline Strohmeier, LL.M., BSc is an associate in the dispute resolution team of Pitkowitz & Partners, where she mainly works in international arbitration.

Prior to joining Pitkowitz & Partners, Caroline worked as a research assistant at the Institute for Civil and Civil Procedure Law and the Institute for Corporate Law at Vienna University of Economics and Business. During her studies, Caroline completed various internships at renowned law firms.

Caroline completed her Bachelor's and Master's degree in Business Law and her Bachelor's degree in Business Administration at Vienna University of Economics and Business and studied at ESADE Law School in Barcelona during her Master's degree.

In the course of her Master's studies, Caroline participated in the 28th Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot Court, where her team made it to the top 16 out of nearly 400 universities and submitted one of the three best Memoranda for the Respondent in the world. Since 2021, she is coaching the WU Vienna Vis Moot Team.

Caroline completed her court clerkship in the district of the Vienna Higher Regional Court.